

Feedback on A1_Project Plan

Summary

✔ Done well Keep Doing

1. turning an abstract UV number into a personal time budget
2. great justification of the Fitzpatrick & WHO sourcing, grounding the thresholds in real sources instead of inventing them

✖ Done badly Must Change

1. sensor——camera/microphone/light sensor/accelerometer/locations/two API calls
2. widget——if you can turn this into a widget in the home screen, something that accumulates and gives people a reason to keep it installed.
3. pause and hold logic

 Suggest Suggest

1. list down competitors——rather than just "no app on the Play Store", because that's an absolute and you'll get an easy viva question on it, naming three and saying what you do differently is a stronger answer anyway.

TO DO LIST

Final submit checklist

1	A report (PDF) that contains: Your group number, as well as the name, student number, email, and Github handle of every student.		12 Oct 2026	NOT STARTED
2	A set of instructions that can help us compile and run your project.		12 Oct 2026	NOT STARTED
3	A screenshot of the Android Studio Console demonstrating the app compiles.		12 Oct 2026	NOT STARTED

4	A section of up to 10 pages that describes how every rubric criterion is met. In this section you need to provide justification as to how and why you have fulfilled every criterion in the rubric.		12 Oct 2026	NOT STARTED
5	YouTube video (up to 10 minutes) demonstrating your App functioning, showcasing each feature in the marking rubric.	@mention	12 Oct 2026	NOT STARTED

6	A one-page itemized breakdown of the contributions by each student. We calculate a score for each student individually.		12 Oct 2026	NOT STARTED	Don't be too general. Each person should elaborate on their own task section and confirm it with the team.
7	A ZIP file containing your code.		12 Oct 2026	NOT STARTED
8	A ZIP file containing an export of commit logs from GIT/SVN/CVS/RCS.		12 Oct 2026	NOT STARTED

9	The University may choose to promote/advertise exceptional work submitted by students, and therefore parts of your submission may end up on its website or other platforms it uses for the sole purpose of promotion. If you wish to allow your work to receive this kind of publicity, please include this message in your report's cover page: "We authorise the		12 Oct 2026	NOT STARTED
---	---	--	--------------------	--------------------	--

University of Melbourne to use material from our submission for publicity." Your decision does not affect the grading of your submission in any way.
--	--	--	--	--

1	BLOCKED
2	IN PROGRESS
3	DONE
4	NOT STARTED